

God Who Saves

Aaron Senseman

C F Fm C

1. There is life in the blood of the lamb who was slain;
 2. There is truth in his body raised that third day;

F Fm C F Fm C

there is pow'r, there is pow'r in his name;
 there is joy in the stone rolled a-way;

F C F Fm C

there is love pouring out of the wounds that were made,
 there is hope pouring out of the tomb where he lay,

F Fm C F Fm C

pouring out, pouring o-ver our shame. So pouring out, pouring o-ver the grave.

Dm G C Dm G C

praise the God who saves, praise the God who bled,

F G C F

praise the God who was nailed to a tree, and

Dm G C F C F

wore our sins upon his head. 2. There is

Bb F C Bb F

Bridge: For he lives that we too might live, and he loves that we might al-so love and know the glo-ry of God a-bove. So

C Bb F C