

The Precious Blood

C2 Fmaj7

1. Be - fore the cross I kneel and see the meas - ure of my sin
2. And who am I that I should know this treas - ure of such worth

C2 Fmaj7

how you be - came a curse for me though you were in - no - cent my Sav - ior's pure a - ton - ing blood, shed for the wrath I'd earned.

Am F2 C G

the mag - ni - tude of your great love was shown in full de - gree
For sin has stained my ev - 'ry deed, my ev - 'ry word and thought.

F G Am Fmaj7

when right - eous blood, the crim - son spill, rained down from Cal - va - ry.
What won - drous love that makes me one your price - less blood has bought.

Gsus4 G F C Am G

Oh, the pre - cious blood that flowed from Mer - cy's side, washed a - way my sin when Christ my Sav - ior died. Oh, the pre - cious blood of

F C Am G F C

Em F

Christ the cru - ci - fied, it speaks for me be - fore your throne, where I stand jus - ti - fied.

F G Am F G C2